Dr. H. E. Watters is a man of myriad abilities. He is noted throughout the South for his executive ability. His affability has won praise from all who know him. His ability to accomplish those things that are most worthwhile and of most benefit to others makes him conform to Shakespeare's famous characterization:

> "He is a man, take him for all in all, We shall not see his like again."

BURLESQUE FOR SENIORS

Now we've come to the Semons, a dignified group!	And speaking of lovers brings to my mind
How stately the'r step as they forward troop.	Cat Stanfield and Helen—they're two of a kind.
Can it be that four years have flown away	And our social lion is Russell Reed,
Since first they entered?—Seems but yesterday.	In his garden of parties he allows no weed.
Well we remember how with faltering feet	There is Mabel Dunn—Doctor's Cluh Queen,
We entered rooms where Profs and pupils meet;	A cuter girl you've never seen.
How we crammed that first year to be able to say	And queen of the U-club is dainty Lorena,
"Oui Monsieur" to Dr. Savage in French every day.	You'll always remember once you have seen her.
We labored in Trig, and in English we toiled	Queeus with the Seniors are a specialty,
Writing long book reviewsburning mid-night oil.	Tennie B. reigns o'er the Calliopean Society;
Chemistry was a Jonah how we passed no one	While queen of the student body is N na,
knows:	Of all the girls you'll not see a finer.
knows;	The girl we're so proud of is none other than
Logic 'most had us strung up by our toes	Claire,
We've featured in clubs, athletics and classes.	She's brought us more honors than anyone here.
We've managed to pull through the deepest mo	And Raymond Tate is a regular clown,
rasses,	When he's about, it's impossible to frown,
But before we leave, a word just here About some who've made up the class this year.	Joe Parker's the shiek when it comes to looks. Mary Nell's a shark when it comes to books. And there are "Poppie" and "Mommie," our "Mr. and Mrs."
First, there's our president, Thurman McLean, His wonderful looks drive the girls all in ane.	They're still so in love it makes us dizzy.
And "Preacher" Pennington, of the student body, president;	Taken all in all we're a goodly bunch,
When there's something to be done, is ne er hes'- tant.	And in days to come I have a hunch We'll all make good in this world of ours, Although the path is not strewn with flowers.
"Thur" Speight is the wittiest girl in school:	Thus formell I'ving second or and foi add

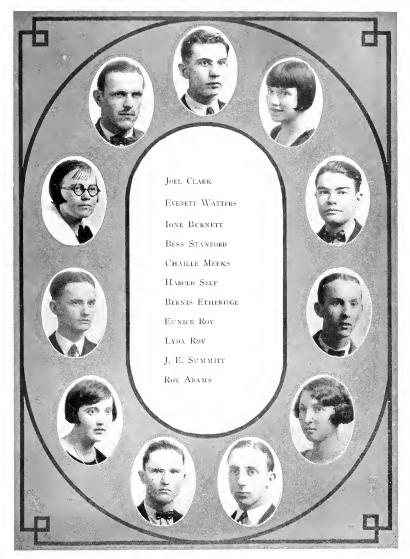

"Thor" Speight is the wittiest girl in school; Then farewell. She is a girl who is nobody's fool. For we must no Ital Carter's so in love with Louse Benge And when we've That on her words his whole fate doth hinge. May it be truly

Then farewell. Union, comrades and friends, For we must not stop 'till our journey ends. And when we've come to life's setting sun May it be truly said of us each—'Well done.''

BURLESQUE FOR JUNIOR CLASS

Here's to the Juniors, God bless 'em! In most respectful tones we address 'em, For have they not wisdom, dignity and grace, And all that's hecoming to ones in their place?

Look at Grady, the president, so genial and jolly, But for all that, we know he's in love with Polly. And Charlie Dodds is the biggest flirt That ever made eyes at any skirt.

The man who gets Cat Routon for a wife Ought to thank his stars the rest of his life. They say a romantic lover is Stew, That he writes wonderfully thrilling love lyrics to you.

Benetta is one who is always well dressed, The boys all grant her slightest request. Maleita Everett, too, is a popular lass, You've got to hand it to her when it comes to class.

Aspiring maidens' hopes despairingly crash When Everett proclaims—"Love me, love my mustache!" One of the very nicest hoys on the Hill

Tall, dark, good-looking-that's Bill.

Mistress Mary but not contrary— How do your honors go? The most beautiful girl in Union U, And queen of A, T, O.

A jolly good fellow is Andy, And with his feet most handy. The G. M. S. sought a queen, and so . They bestowed that honor on Cora Lynn Lowe.

A charming and beautiful girl is Juanita, Wherever she goes, men clamor to meet her. "I'll try anything once, so what do I care?" Asked Ione, as the barber 'ponjolaed' her hair.

Dorothy and Carolyn, two Louisiana girls— With eyes of blue, and teeth like pearls. Freeman Privett, nightwatchman so tall, And his keen eyes skip nothing at all.

Speaking of eyes--there's Donald Hinkle, H1s have the very merriest twinkle. And Givens Wright is one of those men Who is always just as neat as a pin.

Juniors, enjoy all you can as you go along, For next year you'll sing the farewell song; And your heart will break too, when on that day They give you your diploma and send you away.

SOPHOMORES OF TWENTY-FIVE

The Sophomores are a happy lot. They think they're wise, don't say they're not. Among their ranks are the wise and dmnh, Some are for duty and some for fun.

Harris Robinson, the president, For Mabel Dodds has cast his net. Mabel is also queen of the Apps, Her merry ways win all the chaps.

Georgie Porgie Puddin' and Pie, Can kiss the girls and they never cry. The Katzenjammer Kids are Johnnie and Russe'l. To escape their pranks you'll have to hustle.

Ara Alexander is buddy to all, And manager and captain of basket ball. Lucille Dodds is meek and quiet, Much unlike Miss Polly Fite.

Carl Young is to us King Sol, He furnishes the heat at Adams Hall. Fitty Hill is the kind that never thinks. His mind is as mixed as are his drinks.

And then we have Voleria and Ke, Who like Sophomores can never agree. And there's the song bird Edward Kane, And Sheik Mercer our country swain. Mfredo Mooneyham, known as Mooney, A mighty good fellow hut a bit loony, Leon Burnett is built for a runner, But listen to his lue—it's a hummer.

Zed Aydelott is serious and sincere, While old Hooker doesn't worry or care. Turner and Miller are strong for hooks, And we all know it's Patterson for hooks.

Harris and Thomas the chemistry sharks, Find they can't mix studies with larks. Greens Wright of the Student Council, Is sought by each crying damsel.

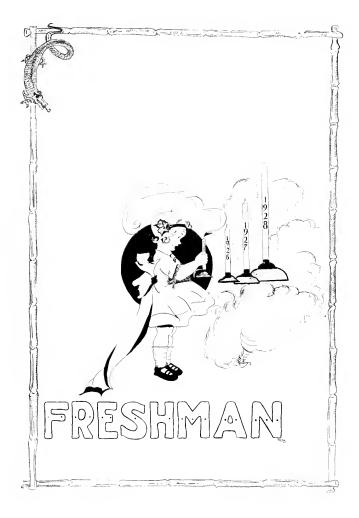

In this class are many more still Good representatives of the school on the Hill. But it is not wise to mention them here, For the price of space is very dear.

You the Sophomores of twenty-five, In twenty-seven will be Seniors tried; In twenty-eight and years to come The world will judge you one by one.

Then prepare ye while ye may, No time's as good as is today. If while here you do your best Facing the world you'll stand the test. L. A

BURLESOUE FOR FRESHMAN CLASS

Seniors were born for great things,	Nat wishes on a star so bright
Sophs were born for small;	For a date with Jacqueline every night.
But it is not recorded why	Some girls like soup and bouillon too,
Freshmen were born at all.	But Ryon will have nothing else but Stew.

But listen dear readers and you shall hear tell Of our Freshman class' personnel. They're young and they're green, but they're not .

bad lot, Now listen and I'll tell you some ways that they've got.

Charles Howse is the president, and he's qu'te a dandy--With the girls is always handy.

Shep is a lion 'mongst the ladies too, He always knows just what to do.

Who is it so happy all the day long? Who's always merrily humming a song? 'Tis one whom people call Louise Kee-The charming queen of S. A. E.

A girl as popular as Mildred Really has no right to be sore --But no matter how many swains woo her She always hollers for Moore.

In classes Aubrey doesn't a thing But wonder when the bell will ring. Yet with the girls he's not so slow As Jimmie can probably tell you so.

Lillie Mai is not only football queen, But also o'er Tate's heart she rules supreme. Famous lovers - Bob and Cleo, A '25 edition of Juliet and Romeo.

"If you can't get along with one or two, You're much better off with three" He puts this theory into practice too, Bob Howard from "Gay Paree."

Chip Upchurch for wit is noted, Than Shakespeare, she's more probably quoted. Tall, bloud, good-looking is Sidney Pugh ----And secretly adored by the ladies too.

Nell Cox the piano surely does play, She's also played Jack's heart away. A perfect dear is Alma Joe, Just ask the boys - they'll tell you so.

A confirmed philanderer is Claud Burnett, No one could help but discern it. I could tell you of others would space permit, But since it doesn't, right here I must quit.

MRS. A. W. PRINCE, B.M., M.M., Director

Under the able direction of Mrs. A. W. Prince, the Conservatory has been making splendid progress. The enrollment has been increasing and this year shows marked success. Mrs. Prince is widely known for her musical ability both as a teacher and as an artist. She has been organist at the First Baptist Church of this city since 1909; and Director of Conservatory of Music, Union University, since 1910.

The piano-forte occupies a place of dignity and value, and rightly deserves treatment commensurate with its place as a factor in musical education. Post-graduate, graduate, and work for teachers of piano is offered.

MRS. EDWARD E. TALIAFERRO Head of Department

The Voice Department is indeed fortunate in having at its head Mrs. Edward E. Taliaferro.

Mrs. Taliaferro is a native of this city. The enrollment of the Department is indeed increasing and the outlook for the coming year is very promising. Mrs. Taliaferro has studied with the best teachers in America. For several years she had a private studio in Nashville. She was elected head of the Voice Department in Union University in the fall of 1924. Under her leadership, the Department shows much development and we are sure this will steadily increase.

MR. GRANT S. HUEY, B.M., TH M. Head of Department

The Department of Gospel Music was added to the University this year, under the direction of Mr. Huey. Mr. Huey is a successful Gospel singer, and has finished the work with Mr. Reynolds of the Southwestern Baptist Seminary.

We are expecting this department to be very popular, since there is a great demand for Gospel singers.

PROF. RAYMOND GUYON Head of Department

With the beginning of the year of 1923-24, Union University saw a new department in action. It was then that Union first added this department of Fine Arts Courses. The school has not mis-judged the need of this department and a large number of students enrolled for this work.

Mr. Guyon is a capable teacher and director, having been director of several large orchestras and bands. His mastery of the stringed and wind instruments shows his ability, intellectuality and musicianship.

The University band and orchestra are making much progress, and we feel sure that the future shall be bright for the entire department.

Under the able direction of Miss Charlotte Watson the Department of Home Economics has made splendid progress. The enrollment is more than double that of last year. Miss Watson has charge of the entire science division of Home Economics.

Union University now offers courses leading to a B.S. degree in Home Economics which qualifies a graduate to teach in any Smith-Hughes or Vocational High School department. Teacher training and related art courses are included in the curriculum.

A six-room cottage is furnished and decorated for senior students taking laboratory courses in Home Management. They occupy the house for one term, assuming the responsibility of household operations under the direction of a supervisor.

The girls have organized a Home Ec. Club and are doing splendid work for the department.

NOTABLE EVENTS IN CAREER

(1) Ran ten miles back to Reservation the first time that he saw a train,

(2) Entered Haskell Industrial School for Indians at the age of eleven, and had reputation of being clumsiest boy in school.

(3) After two years in Haskell Institute, he spent four years on the Reservation.

(4) Entered Carlisle in 1912. Played tackle on the team with Jim Thorpe that same year. Played halfback on the same team in 1913, making Walter Camp's All-American.

(5) Entered Keewatin Preparatory School at Waukesha, Minn. Played football, basket-ball, and baseball.

(6) Entered Georgia Tech in 1916, starred on the Freshman team. Won four first track meets.

(7) Made letters in football, basketball, and track in 1917-18 while in Georgia Tech. The "Big Chief" carried the ball against Vanderbilt in 1917 for almost 300 yards.

(8) Coached Union football squad and played professional baseball in 1919.

(9) Played baseball with Atlanta Southern League Club 1920 to 1923 and was rated as one of the best outfielders in the Southern League in 1923.

(10) Coached the Union Bulldogs in 1923-24 and played professional baseball with Little Rock Southern League Club in summer of 1924. He was one of the best hitters in the League, securing 201 hits during the scason.

(11) Coached the Union Bulldogs again in 1924-25 and turned out a football and basketball team that Union will always praise. He is noted for the pep and fight that he instilled into his team.

One of the best halfhacks ever seen on a Union University gridiron. He won the respect of all, especially that of his fellow players. He will be back next year to help the Bull Dogs work their way into the ranks of the best teams of the South.

Joe Parker

Quarterback 160 Pounds

Parker leaves Union this year with the friendship and respect of all the fellows. He could sure "tote" that oval on a broken-field run and is considered one of the best quarterhacks that ever generaled the Bull Dogs. He was voted best allaround man by the team.

Tate's last year on the team was a glorious one. He went through the opponent's line as if it were nade of dummies. When a first down was needed Tate was sure to be called on. The "Bull Dogs" will miss this very valuable man next year and his position will be hard to fill.

Robert Westmoreland

Fullback 180 Pounds

Captain Westmoreland proved to be as good a fullback as he was a tackle. He could always he counted on to make a gain when it was meeded. He is a great fighter and led his team in great style.

"SEE THE CRISS-CROSS"

Alfred Mooneyham

Fullback 180 Pounds

"Frog Foot" fought hard in carrying the old pig skin. He still holds his reputation as a line plunger. When his opponents saw him coming they "shore did shift 'em dogs." He was also a good man on the defense.

THURMAN MCLEAN

GRADY EVANS

Center-Guard 200 Pounds

"Big Boy Grad" was out last season on account of an injured knee. In the first game this season he slightly injurod it again but after a short rest he was back in his old stride of two years ago. He will be back next year ready to hit Alabama hard.

CHARLIE DODDS, Captain-Elect

Guard-Tackle 173 Pounds

"Charlie Our Boy" was dependable, aggressive, and very consistent. He will be back early in the $^{2}_{25}$ season to start his Bull Dogs to work. By his hard work he will be able to lead the Bull Dogs through a real successful season.

"HERE COMES THE RUNNER AROUND THE END"

RAYMOND JUINGER

Guard 190 Pounds

"Rabbit" Juinger always hit hard and quick, occasionally "Dug Under" but when he came out he was hard to handle. He was characterized by his hard work and true fighting spirit. He will be back next year to don a Bull Dog uniform,

W. A. PENNINGTON

BENNIE MERCER

Tackle 185 Pounds

Those who saw him at Alabama need no intro-duction as to his tenacity and fighting spirit. He could always be depended on to get the man who tried coming over him. He was an earnest worker, a logal fighter who never stopped until the final whistle blew.

Ellis Eckstein

Center 190 Pounds This was "Skinney's" first and last year as he leaves Union in June. He had the tenac'ty of a true Bull Dog and never said "Give up." He was one of our hardest scrappers.

RESULTS OF SEASON

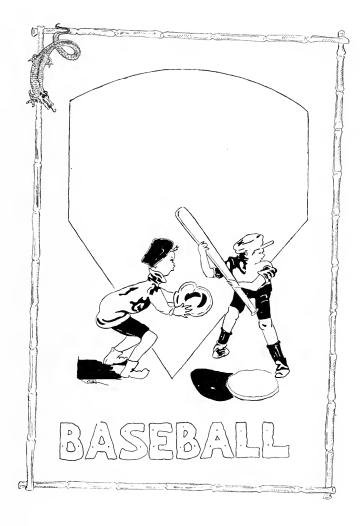

Union Terriers had a short season in 1924-1925, only playing five games. They met some of the strongest teams the south can claim, including Peabody, Ole Miss (2), and Y. W. C. A. (2).

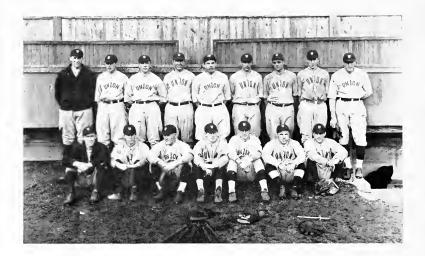

With many of this year's letter girls back the outlook for 1925-1926 is very bright.

The Union University Branch of the Four Square League of America was chartered May 1, 1923. The first meetings were held in the Calliopean Literary Society Hall on the first Thursday night of each month. With this heginning we have grown and developed until now we have thirty members, every one prominent in Union activities. We are proud of our achievements this year and feel that we are better situated to be of henefit to more of the young men.

The purpose of this organization is that each member live up to the principles suggested by our name and be "Four Square" to all the world.

Retrospect

A mere book, perhaps, but, unlike other books, the end of "Lest We Forget" is just a beginning, for in this annual we have placed the hope and promise of what is going to be.

UNION UNIVERSITY JACKSON, TENNESSEE FOUNDED 1842 CO-EDUCATIONAL One of the greatest Baptist Colleges in the World. Only two others in the South have a greater enrollment, and only four in the North, and two of these claim to be non-sectarian. A remarkable growth in the past ten years. From 157 to 1225. "There is a reason." A remarkable record for training men for great leadership.
